

25 Job Sites for Event Planning

courtesy of Careers-in-Event-Planning.com

Thank you for subscribing to my ezine, EVENTful Ventures! I know you will find it to be helpful in starting your career in event planning. Please be sure to read through every page of the website (www.careers-in-event-planning.com), as it contains essential information for understanding the world of events, meetings, and incentives, and how to begin your EVENTful career.

As a special bonus for subscribing to EVENTful Ventures, here is my free report, 25 Job Sites for Event Planning. These are some of the top sites that post openings for jobs in the event industry. I am not endorsing any above the other; this is merely a list.

However, if you do not yet have any experience in planning events, it will be difficult to land a job right out of the gates. Competition is tough, because it's such a fun career path; but it is easy to get started! I strongly encourage you to read through the "Career Planning" page on my website (<http://www.careers-in-event-planning.com/career-planning.html>) to get started. Save this report and, when you are ready, start applying for jobs!

Below is the list of 25 Job Sites for Event Planning. I list the name of the company or the site, the URL, and a short description of the site.

PLEASE NOTE: I tried to include the most complete URL (web site address) possible so that you do not have to spend time searching through convoluted websites to find the Job Listings page. However, sometimes these detailed URLs change or are updated, which makes the link incorrect.

If you click on an extended URL (for example, http://www.destinationmarketing.org/Career_Center/CVBJobOps.asp) and the link does not work, simply type in the base root of the URL (for example, <http://www.destinationmarketing.org>). Then you can navigate your way through the menu to the job postings from there (usually job listings are listed under "Career" or "Resources" or "Job Bank").

Good luck, and I wish you a lifetime of happiness and success!
